Celebrate nationally recognized annual festivals at The Beaches of Fort Myers & Sanibel

LEE COUNTY, Fla. – In addition to great weather, shell-drenched shores and the sparkling Gulf of Mexico, The Beaches of Fort Myers & Sanibel in Southwest Florida is the setting for award-winning, nationally recognized festivals and special events each year. Visit FortMyers-Sanibel.com for more information.

Plan ahead

The sixth annual Island Hopper Songwriter Fest returns Sept. 20-29, 2019. The popular event returns with new artists and new events over 10 days and offers a range of star-studded performances. It kicks off on Captiva Island Sept. 20-22; moves to downtown Fort Myers Sept. 23-26; and ends at Fort Myers Beach Sept. 27-29.

Kristian Bush, a Grammy-winning singer-songwriter and half of the multi-platinum selling country duo Sugarland, will perform Sept. 22 with the Gulf Coast Symphony on stage at Florida Repertory Theatre in downtown Fort Myers. The release of ticket prices for this show, along with other festival details, are available on the new version of the Island Hopper mobile app.

Notable new acts include Sam Williams, the 21-year-old grandson of legendary Hank Williams, and Sawyer Fredericks, the season 8 winner of NBC's "The Voice," will both perform on Captiva.

The festival is presented by The Beaches of Fort Myers & Sanibel, iHeartRadio, Cat Country 107.1 and BMI. It was named one of the top events for summer by the Southeast Tourism Society. For more information visit islandhopperfest.com. Follow the festival hashtag #islandhopperfest on Twitter and other social channels.
