Lee County Visitor & Convention Bureau welcomes new intern

LEE COUNTY, Fla. – The Lee County Visitor & Convention Bureau welcomes Krys Guillaume as its new intern.

Guillaume will serve as a project-based intern supporting all areas of the VCB, including marketing, public relations, sales, visitor services, administration and tourism education training. He is a senior and an international student at Florida Gulf Coast University majoring in Resort & Hospitality Management.

He recently served as a multi-department intern at the Hyatt Regency Coconut Point Resort and Spa, as well as a food and beverage intern at Spring Run Golf Club in Bonita Springs.

Guillaume is from Haiti and speaks French, Haitian Creole and English. He is an avid soccer and basketball player and has a passion for travel. He looks forward to a career in tourism.
